

Floral Art Course Information – FAQ

Thank you for your interest in the Floral Art Course, run by our experienced team of florists!

We are very proud and excited to be presenting this offer in partnership with Living Social. Flowers are beautiful, fun and inspiring, and we would love to share our tips and tricks of the trade with you.

Who are Fresh Flowers?

Freshflowers.com.au have been part of the online floristry community for over a decade. Our florists have been working in Brisbane and throughout many cities in Australia for many decades. We have some of the most talented florists in Australia delivering fresh flowers directly to you, your business or your loved ones.

Our flowers are market fresh, arriving direct from the farms every day of the week!

To find out more, you can follow us on Facebook - www.facebook.com/FreshFlowers.com.au

How will the course be run?

The course will be taken in small groups of 15-20 people. Flowers are wonderful, bright and enjoyable, and this course introduces flowers and some tips and tricks of the trade that can help you take everyday flowers and turn them into art.

We will learn how to make some sophisticated table arrangements, buttonholes, and a bright bouquet to take home. Come by yourself or bring some friends!

The course will be held within the Lynch Market Flowers shed on Sherwood Road at the Rocklea Markets.

On which days will the course be run?

The courses will be run on Tuesday and Saturdays, to give as many people as possible the chance to attend. The first date available is Saturday the 3rd of March with the next available date being Tuesday the 6th of March and so on. The final date at this stage will be April the 10th.

How can I reserve my place?

Once you have your Living Social voucher, simply email us at customercarebne@freshflowers.com.au with some suggestions of your preferred dates, including your name, address, contact phone number, email and voucher number. We will do our best to place you into a time of your choosing! If you have any questions, you can email us or call us on 13 37 37 (13 FRESH).